

& PHILLIPE BEAUDOIN

THE AMPERSAND
CONFERENCE

VP RESEARCH GROUP
AT ELEMENT AI

Phillipe has twenty years of professional experience as a software team manager, academic researcher and software developer, including 5 years at Google.

He has a M. Sc., Ph. D. and Postdoc studies in Computer Science, and is a researcher focusing on bipedal control, machine learning and physics simulation.

He has published 20 significant scientific papers, patents or book chapters, and is the founder of three corporations, including Element AI and ArcBees Consulting. He was an invited speaker at Google I/O 2011 and in many public events.